of the living _____.

Matthew 16:16

◆ CHALLENGE: Write the verse on a piece of paper or dry erase board. Roll a die. Erase the number of words that coordinates with the number on the die. (If you roll a three, for instance, erase three words.) Try to say the verse with the missing words. Continue until all the words are gone and you know the verse well.

TOMORROW'S PRECIOUS GOLD

Fill in the blank in the verse below with one of the following names for Jesus: Christ, Son, God

Therefore, if anyone is in
_____, he is a new creation.

2 Corinthians 5:17

◆ Try the challenge again using tomorrow's verse.

GO & DO

1 Perform the sad news/glad news motions for someone who hasn't seen them yet.

3 Make a cross craft. From an empty egg carton, cut a strip five egg cups long. Cut another strip three egg cups long. Make a cross out of them. Color each egg cup or glue crumpled tissue paper into each one.

2 Make resurrection rolls. Cut marshmallows in half, roll in melted butter, roll in cinnamon sugar, and hide inside a crescent roll, covering completely. Bake according to the crescent roll package instructions. Check out the inside—it's empty, just like the tomb where Jesus had been buried! No one else has an empty tomb. Only Jesus!

4 Use your cross craft to explain to a friend or family member why it's important to know that Jesus isn't on the cross or in the tomb anymore! He is alive!
