

TODAY'S PRECIOUS GOLD

Draw a cross (†) in place of all the Ts in the verse below to remind yourself of the life-changing power of Jesus.

__herefore, if anyone is in Chris __, he is a new crea __ ion. 2 Corin __ hians 5:17

- ◆ CHALLENGE: Divide the verse into four parts. With a partner, take turns saying the verse phrases in fun ways. For example, you say the phrase in a British accent and your partner says the phrase in a French accent. You—loudly; your partner—softly. You—slowly; your partner quickly. You—lie on the floor; your partner—jumping up and down.

GO & DO →

- 1 As you read the Bible and examine what Jesus taught (for example, see the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), think about your attitudes and actions. Are you obeying what He taught? Are there any attitudes or actions Jesus wants you to change?

Color a coffee filter and tie a pipe cleaner in the middle, making a butterfly with two wings. Use your butterfly as a reminder that Jesus transforms us.

- 3 Give today's craft or another gift to someone. Let your light shine as you tell them about Jesus, the Light of the World (John 8:12).

- 4 Read or have someone tell you about a person whose life has been changed by Jesus.

Ask yourself this question:

Have I told anyone lately about Jesus—the one-of-a-kind, miraculous, radical, death-defying, life-changing Jesus? Make a list of people you can tell. Ask God to help you be faithful to spread the good news like wildfire.
